

Jesus in the Desert

Read the Bible story of Jesus in the Desert: Luke 4:1-13.

After reading, rewrite the sentences below so they are in the correct order.

Jesus refused and said, "It is written: 'You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve.'"

The devil left Jesus, and Jesus returned from the desert.

The Holy Spirit led Jesus to the harsh desert wilderness.

On the last night, the devil came to test Jesus' faith and trust in God.

The devil tempted Jesus with food.

Jesus refused and said, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

For 40 days, Jesus ate nothing.

The devil tried to trick Jesus into jumping from the tower of the temple.

The devil told Jesus that he could be the king of all kingdoms if he would worship the devil.

Jesus refused and said, "It also says, 'You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test.'"